Dear Readers,

As we begin this second Volume of The Martin Genealogist, we also make a few more changes, alway trying to improve the quality and scope of our magazin

As seems to be usual, we are late, this time, very lat No particular reason, this time, except we just have h much too much to do. As most of you know, we have dis-continued most of our genealogy magazines, and nc can devote the time needed to our first love, Martin Genealogy!!! We have more than two hundred subscribers, and pick up a few more each week. Have yo told your correspondents about us yet?

Thank you for your patience and understanding. The Indians have an old expression, that if you want to understand the other person, just walk in his shoes for a moon. I wish you could walk in an editor's shoes for a month, then you would certainly know our probler and frustrations. Thank you for your patience.

70-1 I have before me the total amount of information that you subscribers have sent me, and believe me, it measures a total of eight inches high. That is enough information to publish for several years at the rate that we are going. Because of this, I have two roads that I can take. Either I put a stop to receiving new Martin information, or publish more in each issue. Common sense tells me to take the latter. And this is what we are going to do. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE, keep on sending in your Martin information. WE WILL USE IT! It may take us a while, but use it we will!!!

We have changed the size of the magazine, to try and use some of that blank space that seems to appear on most of the large sheets. Please rest assurred, though, that we do not intend to squeeze the queries all together like some other publishers do! That is not our purpose. We hope to make the publication as readable as possible.

In our letter to all subscribers in July, we indicated that the cost of The Martin Genealogist will be $5.00 per year from now on. Several of you have send $1.50 in to make up the difference. You need not do that until your subscriptions run out. This issue comes to you to cover the first half of the year 1970, the other three issues will come out at two month intervals (here we go again, making promises). I am still compiling a list of Martin Genealogies that have been published in book form. Also wish to purchase any and all or at least borrow them to get them copied. Have you any?

David Chancellor Martin

70-2 Dear Readers, do any of you have a Chancellor anywhere on your family trees? I am compiling Chancellor information, any state, any date, any family! Please help me. There were and are so few Chancellors that not too far back they must have all been of the same line. My mother has published a book on the Chancellors if any of you are interested in further information.

70-3 Dear Readers,

A few of you haven't renewed your subscriptions yet, but we are sending you this copy in hopes that you will stay with us. Won't you renew now?

70-4 Dear David,

Your "Martin" Magazine makes me feel like I am really part of your family, and I was so well pleased with my line, pages 74, 75 and 76. I know some day that I will open the mail and have an answer to all my questions. I did receive a letter from a Dr. Lawrence T. Sennello on our Martins when he read my line. His wife's line:

VERLA BERNICE MARTIN, born 1916, McLean Co., Illinois. HENRY CLAY MARTIN, born Perry County, Indiana. SAMUEL MARTIN, born 1844, in Perry County, Indiana, JOHN MARTIN, born 1817-1818 in Indiana.

I couldn't believe what I was seeing but I guess that happens, so I checked my 1820 Census of Perry County, Indiana, and found a Samuel Martin with two males less than 10 and one male 26/45 and one female 26/45, which just could be the two small boys in SAMUEL MARTIN family, and could be JOHN and my WILLIAM if they came from Ohio which I wrote to him so that we could check on the earlier dates since we have so many family names down the lines.

I have been at a standstill on the WILLIAM MARION MARTIN. I have everything since he married in 1846 to EASTER LEOVINA SMELCER on down and all I get before is his head-stone birth and death and in all census it gives the birth of his parents as Pennsylvania, and he in Ohio. I have gotten all the death certificates of his children that I could get, and some didn't even know where he was born, and the rest gave Ohio.

I have even looked for death notices in the old newspapers of Kansas to no avail, so I am now checking the Topeka Archives on the old Newspapers as I have information that they really have a very good account on most. The only thing I have been able to find out is that when he came to Kansas in 1876, his claim had a very good rock quarry and he cut most all the rock post that was used for fences in the early days in Ellis and Rush Counties. I have been there and sure enough they are still in use and I have my order in for one of them to place in my yard as he was the best quarry man around. But I fear that doesn't help much in finding any of his forefathers.

70-9 Dear Mr. Martin:

I have sent to Brown County, Illinois, to see if I can discover any wills, etc., relating to WILLIAM, LOUISA or RIAL MARTIN, and if I can find more on my great grandmother, PERNITA ANN (MARTIN) COPPAGE. I am, though, convinced that she descends from the MARTIN family that used the name ORSON as that was the middle name of my grandfather, CHARLES ORSON COPPAGE. (Ed. Note: That would be my line-DCM) In the meantime this information may or may not tie in with my own MARTIN lineage:

Thank you.

Mrs. C. F. Foster, 1130 South Michigan Ave., #1904, Chicago, Illinois 60605

70-13 Here is my problem. My grandfather, CHANDLER MARTIN STARKS, born on Dec. 4, 1850, probably in Erie County, N. Y. His father was JOHN MARTIN STARKS or START, born 30 October, 1827. I don't know who or where his parents were. He married FEDELIA STODDARD on 22 April, 1849 in Buffalo, New York. I have been told the surname should be Start with this last generation as one of John Martin's sons used this surname. He claimed the government made an error during a war and mis-spelled the name, spelling it Starks. The family from that time on assumed that name then. I have John Martin Stark's Civil War records from the Archives and the name is spelled Starks on it. Because of this descrepancy in surnames I have not been able to follow this line any further. We also have very limited genealogical aids here and must rent or purchase all books or microfilm we use. This makes it very expensive and sometimes a foolhearty past-time. I really should not call it a past-time as it started out to be a check on a heart disease which has "popped" up in this generation. I was one of five children and the other four have all suffered from it and died at 34, 36, 38, and 50. I was interested in finding out what had caused this for their children's sake. We have been told that Chandler Martin Starks married a cousin and John Martin Starks also married a cousin. If this is true, possibly this is where the weakness comes from.

Does anyone have any suggestions as to how I could further check this Martin line? I almost believe since two generations have Martin for their middle name that there must have been a maternal grandparent, possibly in the generation of John Martin Starks or Start's parents.

Did JOHN MARTIN STARKS or START, of Buffalo, N. Y, where he married FEDELIA STODDARD April 22, 1849, and died in West Victory, Michigan, 4 March, 1885, have a Martin ancestor?

Mrs. Peggy Bexten Johnson, 1118 N. Bellevue, Hastings, Nebraska 68901

70-14 Dear Mr. Martin,

I don't know who was responsible for sending me a back issue of your Martin Genealogist, but it was a pleasure to happen to be the recipient of such interesting material.

My research goes back to JACOB MARTIN, born in 1783 (or 1793). His wife's name was RHEUMAH (HILL-?), born 18 June, 1790, and died 23 Jan., 1849. I believe this couple was born in south-central Pennsylvania and lie buried in this area although I have nothing to substantiate this. It is recorded via a "lost" family Bible that Grandpap Jacob sired six girls and 4 boys. The oldest, Lavina was born 22 November, 1813, which makes Grandma pretty young. Anyway, Lavina married a man by the name of MANN. MARGARET, born 10 Feb., 1818, married a ROBINSON. Isaac was born 27 November, 1815, and was the oldest son. Charlotte was born 21 Feb., 1820, and died 24 August, 1887. She married a man by the name of Clark, 6 Nov. 1859, and there is a recorded birth, a MARY ELLEN CLARK, born 12 Nov., 1861. Mary was born 1 April, 1821, and died 2 Jan. 1851. Rachael was born 8 Feb. 1824, and married a Bain or maybe Bayne, and died 10 March, 1848. Job Howard was born 6 July, 1826. Jason was born 5 August, 1827, and died in 1886. (more on him below). Martha was born 3 June, 1829, and Denton, the youngest, was born 13 August, 1834.

And now to Jason, who fathered four boys and two girls and is my direct line with the family. He married MARGARET ELIZABETH GROVES of Virginia who was born 15 September, 1837, and died in 1895. HOWARD GREGORY was the oldest son, born 1 June, 1876, died 9 May, 1961, buried with his wife ANNIE, in Ockley cemetery, Needmore, Pennsylvania. Other off-spring were: VERMILLA RACHELLE, born 12 Oct. 1873; MARY CATHERINE, born 4 July, 1878, and my father, JOB FRANKLIN, born 3 Oct. 1882, and died 7 June, 1960 and is buried in Park Hill Cemetery in Vancouver, Washington. Twin sons, born in January, 1881, and named CHARLES FRANKLIN and WILLIAM SHERMAN, died as infants. It is the whereabouts of these aunts of mine that I would like to get some information on. As may be noted, my grandfather Jason, an itinerant circuit riding Christian Church Minister, and married late in life. His children were orphaned and raised as "found" children and scattered, and lost track of each other, except for the two boys. However, it is believed that one of the girls, Vermilla, described by my father as a beautiful young woman with long blond hair married a Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad man by the name of BILL GIESINGER. However, Mary C. may be the Mary E. that married a man by the name of RICE. She was born in 1873 and died in 1949 so maybe Vermilla was the youngest girl. She supposedly had a son, WALTER RICE of Mt. Vernon, Washington, but I couldn't find him in that city's directory. My grandmother (Groves) told my father once that she had been disowned by her family (Virginia Plantation family) for marrying a "Yankee Preacher." I've never found the time to check further into this interesting item.

And now for some random information that may help others (or us): My father, Job Franklin Martin, married FLORENCE E. BIRDELL of Bucklin, Kansas, in Kansas City, Missouri, 1 June, 1913, and to this marriage were born five sons; 1. Howard Franklin Martin (the writer of this information), born 3 March, 1914, 2. Oscar Jason, born 29 July, 1915, 3. Theodore Vernon, born 4 March, 1917, 4. George Edwin, born 20 June, 1919, and 5. James Alvin, born 1 May, 1931. Our mother was born 23 March, 1895, and lies beside our father, having died 14 February, 1956. Her parents were OSCAR and ELIZABETH (HEDRICK) BIRDELL. Her only brother, GEORGE LOUIS (LOU) never married and died of World War One injuries in 1922, and is buried beside his mother, ELIZABETH HEDRICK BIRDELL CARTER, in Loveland, Colorado. Mr. Birdell and Mr. Carter both died comparatively young as the result of fatal farm accidents and lie beside each other in Bucklin, Kansas. Oscar Birdell expired from a rattle snake bite in 1902 and two years later, Jason (Nick) Carter died of a broken neck when his horse stepped into a prairie dog hold. Grandma told me once this finished her with men, they were more trouble than they were worth. She was born, probably, in Kentucky in 1856 and died in 1935. Birdell was born, probably, in Ky., in 1848 and died in 1902. Of interest only to me, but interesting nontheless, was the fact that both of my sets of grandparents married late in life for those days and produced families at an age seldom heard of today. Both women were near 40 when they married.

For anyone who may wish to bring my direct line down until today, I married MARY ELIZABETH MENNOCHIO (changed to MENCHIO) by an uncle prior to her birth, was born in Karthaus, Pa., 25 August, 1909. To this union was born two daughters, ELIZABETH JOHANNA (BETTE JO), born 14 June, 1942, and married 20 July, 1963 to FREDERICK LAWRENCE KINCAID. To date they have two children, JOHN FREDERICK, born 27 April, 1964, and KRISTINA ELIZABETH (TINA), born 7 August, 1965. PAULA MARIE was born 16 April, 1945, and married PAUL ALAN COLE, 22 July, 1967. They have a son, RICHARD ALAN, born 6 March, 1969.

My cousin HAROLD MARTIN brings up many interesting facts about the family. There is a Mrs. Shively in Everett, Pa., who is a grand-daughter of Jacob's oldest boy, ISAAC, who married an ISABELLA MC KEE, (22 Sept. 1825 to 14 March, 1903) and was father of HANNAH J. (1856-1925) Mrs. Shively's mother. His other two children were bachelors and partners in an undertaking establishment. Their names, WILLIAM (1857-1922) and JOHN (1851-1928) both are buried at Jerusalem Church in Bedford County, Pa.

Cousin Harold's grandfather was DENTON, the youngest of Jacob's family of ten.

DENTON OLIVER was a decorated Civil War hero and was General Grant's Chief Courier and Confidant throughout the Civil War. I visited his grave at Sideling Hill Cemetery in Fulton County, Pa., in 1969 with Harold, but I misplaced some notes which included his date of death. He fathered two sons, GEORGE, who was killed as a youth by lightning, and JOSEPH ULYSSES (24 Aug., 1868 to 27 Jan. 1938) Joseph fathered two children, a daughter, Louise in May, 1907, and Cousin Harold, 25 Jan. 1914. Denton married a member of the Gates family, but I have no other information on her. THEODORA BOWERS married Joseph. Her father was T. F. BOWERS and her mother MARY SENA (ARDINGER) BOWERS.

Job (sometimes recorded as Jobe) Howard is the only one of Jacob's four boys I need some help on. He must have been Grandfather Jason's favorite brother because he named his two boys after him, Howard Gregory and Job Franklin.

I would also like to know something of Great-Grandfather Jacob. Did he have any brothers or sisters? Who were his parents? If he was born on a farm near Mercersburg across the fence from the Buchanans, were his parents also natives of that area?

My uncle, Howard Gregory Martin married CALVIN PECK's daughter, ANNA FRANCES. They raised two boys; ROY, who lives in Needmore, and Franklin Jason, who lives in Harrisburg. Anna was born 12 March, 1881, and died 21 December, 1962. Calvin Peck's wife was a Hixon. Olive Seville of Handcock, Md., is a sister of Anna. Mrs. Paul Shook and Mrs. Dave Finney are Olive's daughters. I believe they live in the Hagerstown or Hancock area.

I finally throw in something of interest to those of you with the time and money to follow up an interesting item if you do not believe in coincidences in this area.

I found a GREGORY MARTIN who died in 1582 that was a famous translator of the Bible. He also was the private tutor to PHILIP HOWARD, later to be known as the Earl of Arundel. Makes one wonder why the names of Howard and Gregory never die. And way all the Biblical names in the family? Does this explain what my father once told me that he was predominately Irish, but there was also French and English blood in our veins?

In one of his more expansive moods years ago, he made what seemed to me a serious statement that the Dutch grabbed all the bottom land in Pa., and the Irish would have starved to death on their rocky hill tops if it wasn't for the occasional saw mill or farm job they obtained from the Dutch. He also added with a gleam in his eye that some financially good marriages were made between the bottom land Dutch and the hill top Irish which kept the wolf from the door also.

My father was a 42 year Rock Island Railroad man, My brother George and your Father's 1947 picture

My father was a 42 year Rock Island Railroad man, and my brother George and your father's 1947 (see cover of the last issue of volume one of this magazine) picture really startled me. Never saw two men closer resemble each other and his father could pass for my Uncle Howard.

Keep this under your hat, but next year we hope to add a photograph section in the middle of each issue, so dig out those old photographs, also photographs of you current Martin genealogists.

70-18 Dear Mr. Martin,

I am very much interested in your project of publishing magazines on certain surnames. I am interested in the surname of Martin, as that was my maiden name. I have been researching a WILLIAM MARTIN family of Londonderry and Pembroke and Alexandria, New Hampshire. My early-day Martins came from northern Ireland, and settled in Londonderry, N. H.

My great-great grandfather's name was McDaniel Samuel Martin, and it is reported that his father's name was William. I believe it is the William Martin, Jr., who was listed as living in Pembroke Town in the 1790 census, but I don't have proof of relationship. I don't know who the mother was (of my gr. gr. grandfather.)

I am also interested in Baker, Jaquith, Cheeley, James, McFerrin, Liveringhouse, Hoyt and Cass.

Florence Martin Laird was born 20 December, 1920, Hopkins, Minn., married 23 December, 1938, Hopkins, Minn., to Robert E. Laird.

Florence's parents were Jesse Gilbert Martin, born 12 March, 1887, Juniata, Nebr., (Adams County), died 26 December, 1951, Hopkins, Hennepin County, Minn., married 12 June, 1907, in Ramey, Minn., Agnes I. Baker , born 26 Aug., 1885, Minnetonka Mills, Hennepin Co., Minn. She died 20 September, 1961, Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minn.

Children of Jesse and Agnes Martin:

1. Georgia Delia Martin, born 3 March, 1908, died 24 February, 1941.
2. Cora Mae Martin, born 11 April, 1911, died 12 June, 1965.
3. Florence Vivian Martin, born 20 Dec. 1920.

Jesse's parents were Henry Nason Martin, born 14 May, 1862, Washington Township, Iowa, died 13 November, 1939, Sebring, Florida. Married 20 May, 1886, Juniata, Nebraska (Adams, Co.)

Cora Lorena McFerren, botn Goshen, Ill., Elkhart County, she died 26 December, 1951, Sebring, Florida. Children:

1. Jesse Gilbert Martin
2. Florence E. Martin, born 11 Feb. 1889 (still living Aug. 1970)
3. Leon Emerson Martin, born 19 March, 1897, died 24 January, 1898
4. Albert Henry Martin, born 28 Oct. 1898 (still living, Aug. 1970)
5. Elmer Lee Martin, born 25 July, 1902 (still living, Aug. 1970)

Henry Nason Martin's parents were Jesse G. Martin, born 24 April, 1809, Alexandria, New Hampshire, died 31 March, 1888, Juniata, Nebr., married 1 Oct. 1850, Nashua, New Hampshire, Lavina Hayt(e), born 7 Nov. 1821, Woodstock, New Hampshire, died 26 May, 1886, Juniata, Nebr. Children:

1. George Martin, born 25 June, 1851, died 2 September, 1873
2. Charles B. Martin, born 10 January, 1853
3. Luther J. Martin, born 3 September, 1856, died 29 October, 1856
4. Henry Nason Martin

Jesse G. Martin's parents were McDaniel Samuel Martin, born 22 June, 1775, Londonderry, N. H., died 3 April, 1856, Westville, Franklin Co., N. Y. married 7 February, 1805, Wealtha Cass, born 12 February, 1788, Alexandria, N. H., she died 16 October, 1854, Bushtown, Franklin Co., New York. Their children:

1. Samuel Martin, Jr., born 20 July, 1806
2. Nathaniel Martin, born 27 Nov. 1807
3. Sarah Martin, born 3 Nov. 1808
4. Jesse G. Martin, born April, 24, 1809 (there must be some error on the birth dates of the birth of #3 and #4, as there is only five months difference.
5. Nason Cass Martin, born 23 April, 1810
6. Robert A. Martin, born 27 May, 1812
7. Anne Martin, born 15 Feb. 1814

11. Hollis S. Martin, born 20 May, 1823
12. Nancy Ann Martin, born 23 Oct. 1825

McDaniel Samuel Martin's father possibly is William Martin, Jr., of Pembroke, N. H., born 1749.

70-19 Dear Mr. Martin,

I noticed your ad in the Genealogical Helper for March, 1970, and while I have nothing to add to your work, perhaps you (or someone) could help me with my problem. I need information on:

George Martin, born 23 Sept., 1791, according to census of 1850, in Ky., died 23 August, 1852, in Platte County, Mo. Married (no date or place given) Margaret _____, born 1 July, 1796, according to census, in Virginia, died 15 Sept. 1874, in Platte County, Mo.

This Margaret was said by her son to be a "Bates" but he also says she was Mrs. Margaret Bowman, at the time of her marriage to George Martin. I wish I knew if these statements were correct.

WHO WERE THE PARENTS OF THESE PEOPLE? WHERE WERE THEY FROM?

The Will of George Martin has a "W" as his middle initial. What does it mean? (My guess would be Washington, DCM) The children's names are Marshall "N" or "W", Alphonso L., (Levi? DMB?) Elvina, Matilda Ann, Eliza Ann.

The family moved around a great deal for Alphonse was born in Tenn, c. 1817, Matilda Ann, born in Alabama, c. 1824, Marshall born probably in Tenn. 1815, George, born in Missouri, 182?. (I notice that Alphonse is also spelled Alphonso in the above-DCM

Matilda Ann Martin married Enock Wood in Platte County, and then married Henry Lamar, my GG father. She died 1 April, 1865, in Platte Co., Mo.

County, Texas, died 28 Feb., 1956, San Antonio, Texas, married Ellen Marie Coats, born 25 June, 1917, in Callahan County, Texas.

Ellen Marie Coats Fisher's parents were:

George Washington Coats, born 4 July, 1876, in Coryell County, Texas, died 22 September, 1945, Harlingen, Texas. Married 21 September, 1898, to Frances Elizabeth Martin, born 22 December, 1883, Coryell County, Texas, died 3 March, 1920, Cottonwood Callahan Co., Texas.

Frances Elizabeth Martin Coats' parents were:

70-22 If anyone ever comes across where a nice girl, Miss Martin, married a Crook, please let me know. She is the one I want. I have no other data except that it was early. The father was probably William Crook who entered the USA in 1635. His son, John, was probably the one who married Miss Martin, about 1660+, in Virginia. They went to New York City after Bacon's rebellion, and lived where Wall Street is now. John Crook died after 1707, on Staten Island, where he retired. They belonged to The Trinity Church in New York City, as John Crook helped to build it by contributing money. The above is fact not fancy, as it is found in The New York Register.

Sir,

In the compilation of the Flournoy history in the Virginia Magazine, Anthony Martin has been mentioned several times as the acting executor of Samuel Flournoy, of Powhattan, who died 1780. By the kindness of Mr. Samuel S. Sublett, himself a lineal descendant of "John Soblett" of the old Manakin Parish Clerk, set out in "The Huguenot Emigration" the epitaph on the tombstone over Anthony Martin's grave is herewith given:

"Here lies the remains of Anthony Martin, born the 26th. day of September, 1737, and departed this life the 3rd. day of June, 1805, aged 67 yrs., 8 mo., and 7 days"

"Remember me as you pass by,
As you are now, so once was I.
As I am now you soon must be,
Prepare for death and follow me."

The decedent was buried on his farm, yet known as Martin's Tract, near Sublett Post-Office, and not far from old Manakin.
